property description

Situated in a quiet residential road, this five double bedroom Victorian family house is over 2100 sq ft with a 58ft South East facing garden. Athenlay Road is a sought after road within walking distance to some very sought after schools in the area. The property has generous living space and five good size bedrooms as well as two bathrooms. This property would benefit from some general updating and would make a fantastic family home for someone looking to put their own stamp on a property.
