

Brockley View , SE23 (4 Bedroom House)

£600,000

property description

Perched near the top of Brockley View is this lovely mid terrace, 4-bedroom family home with amazing views over the green open spaces of Blythe Hill park and comes with private off-street parking. The house offers well laid out living accommodation that is very practical and functional, making it flexible to many different buyers. The house is set back from the street offering additional privacy and there is a handy front porch that gives access to the house. As you enter there is an entrance hall that has plenty of storage and a downstairs WC. The current owners have opened the entrance to the reception room at the back to create more open planned living with additional light and space. They have also installed new brushed aluminium bi fold doors and a large window, both in a fashionable charcoal grey colour which really makes the room a lovely entertainment space, especially in the summer. These doors lead out to the rear garden which has a neat patio area closest to the house and a lawn at the rear with a shed. There is a gate at the back of the garden which gives direct...
