property description

Available end September. Located on this popular quiet residential street is this unique two bedroom detached bungalow benefitting from off street parking, stunning views and a large rear garden. The property is also ideally located close to Horniman gardens and Horniman school. Available immediately. The front driveway is big enough for two cars and the house is set back from the street. There is a handy front porch for wet brollies and shoes. The kitchen has been updated in recent years and there is a good size family bathroom. Both bedrooms are at the front of the property, the larger of the two is the master and is a good size double, the 2nd broom is a small double The reception room is at the rear of the house and gives direct access to the rear garden through glass sliding doors. The garden is a very good size as it wraps around the side and rear of the property cascading away from the house offering amazing views over Dulwich and beyond. Ringmore Rise is a very popular location and a remarkably quiet street, there is a very good community of local residents and...
